STEPS

1. Confirm the blade sizes and buy the new blades - The 2010-2018 Ram 2500 takes a 22-inch blade on the driver side and a 22-inch blade on the passenger side - both fronts are the same length on this generation. Buy two 22-inch blades before you start; every dedicated fitment catalog ag...
2. Park the wipers and lift the driver-side arm - Turn the truck off and make sure the wipers are parked at the base of the windshield. The Ram 2500 has no wiper service position - lift each arm straight up off the glass.
3. Remove the old driver-side blade (J-hook) - The Ram 2500’s arms use a J-hook connector. Lift the driver-side arm, find the release tab where the blade clips into the hook, press it, and slide the old blade down and out of the hook.
4. Prep the new driver-side blade - Lay the new 22-inch blade beside the old one to confirm the length matches. Check that the J-hook adapter on the new blade is the right type for the truck’s arm.
5. Install the new driver-side blade and check the lock - Thread the arm’s hook through the new blade’s adapter and slide the blade up until it clicks firmly into place. Lower the arm gently back onto the windshield rather than letting it snap down.
6. Do the passenger side (no rear wiper on a pickup) - Repeat the same J-hook release and install on the passenger side with the second 22-inch blade. The Ram 2500 is a pickup, so there is no rear wiper to replace - the two fronts complete the job.
7. Test with washer fluid and inspect the wipe - Start the truck, spray washer fluid, and run the wipers on low and high speed. Both 22-inch blades should sweep quietly with no streaks, skips, or chatter across the wide windshield.
